Mission Statement

Our Purpose is:

To protect, preserve and promote our Canadian heritage of vintage watercraft by:

- Providing events and services which educate and inspire member and public appreciation and enjoyment of this heritage,
- Protecting and preserving vintage watercraft, related artifacts and information,
- Working with and supporting non-profit organizations having links to our interest, vents or venue communities,
- Providing services to our members fostering fellowship, education and resource information in our common interest,
- Increasing awareness of, appreciation of and participation in our Society.

When you join the ACBS Toronto you may also add the ACBS International Membership by including the appropriate additional fee.
